

I am opposed to the rule change that is being rushed through without appropriate time for public debate.